

Beginning addition with pictures: Add together the two groups of items and write the total in the space provided. Then rewrite the entire math equation on the line under the pictures.

Tip for parents: Give your child two small piles of jelly beans and ask him to count each pile and then count the total amount. Let him eat one jelly bean and then ask him to recount his total number.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com