

Beavers build dams across streams to cause water to back up and form ponds. They then build a lodge in the middle of the new pond to be safe from predators. Help this beaver find the way to its lodge.

