

Matching pictures to shadows: Draw a line between each picture and its shadow. Direct your child to focus on details such as curves or angles in the outline of each full-color picture.

Tip for parents: Empty egg cartons are great for matching activities. Place one small item in each hole in the top row of the carton and have your child put identical items into the corresponding holes in the bottom row.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com