

Tracing the letter b: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This letter is made in one smooth movement. Direct your child to draw a straight line down and pause. Then, without lifting the pencil, change direction and make the small curve upward to complete the b.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more worksheets at

KIDOTI.com