

Tracing the letter d: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: The key to this letter is writing it without lifting the pencil. After drawing the loop, direct your child to continue drawing to the top line before changing direction and drawing a straight line back to the bottom.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more worksheets at