

Tracing the letter g: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This letter begins the same way as a lowercase a, but has a “monkey’s tail” hanging down past the lower line. Remind your child not to lift the pencil before adding the tail to the letter.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com