

Tracing the letter I: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This is the easiest letter of all. The only trick is for your child to monitor the length of the line as he draws it, so that it remains proportional in size to the other letters being written.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com