

Tracing the letter m: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This is the double mountain letter! Direct your child to complete the letter without lifting the pencil by first drawing one straight line, then drawing two mountains next to each other.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com