

Tracing the letter n: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This letter is formed in one stroke. After your child draws the first straight line, direct him to keep the pencil in place and, without lifting it, draw one mountain or hill next to the straight line he already drew.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com