

Tracing the letter q: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: Remind your child to draw this letter in one stroke, so the loop and downward line are connected seamlessly. As he completes the straight line downward, remind him to hook to the right to give the letter its tail.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com