

Tracing the letter r: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This letter is similar to a lowercase n but does not have a complete hump. Direct your child to begin drawing the hump as usual, but to stop shortly after the pencil passes the tallest part of the hump.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com