

Tracing the letter z: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: The key to a well-formed lowercase z is drawing sharp corners. As your child writes the letter, remind him to pause completely at the corners before changing direction and drawing the next line.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com