

Tracing the letter B: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: The key to writing a neat B is to lift the pencil once. After drawing the straight line down, direct your child to lift the pencil, go back to the top and draw two half circles without picking the pencil up in the middle.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more worksheets at