

Tracing the letter D: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This letter requires one straight line and one big curve. After drawing the vertical line, direct your child to pick up the pencil and draw one big curve from the top of the line to the bottom of the line.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more worksheets at KiDoTi.com