

Tracing the letter G: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This letter begins like a C, with a long, smooth curve. After making a complete curve, direct your child to stop and, without lifting the pencil, change direction to draw a short, horizontal line to the left.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com