

Tracing the letter H: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: After drawing the first vertical line, direct your child to draw a second, identical line one finger width away from the first line. Then, your child must lift the pencil and draw a line connecting the two vertical lines.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com