

Tracing the letter I: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: The trick to writing this letter clearly is to show your child how the letter is symmetrical. The vertical line is the longest and the top and bottom lines should be centered on top and bottom of the vertical line.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com