

Tracing the letter P: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This letter requires two different strokes. First your child needs to draw a straight line downward. Then direct him to lift the pencil and draw a half circle from the top of the line to the mid-point of the line.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com