

Tracing the letter Z: Direct your child to hold the pencil firmly between his thumb and index finger, resting it on his middle finger for support. The arrows indicate the proper and easiest construction of the letter.

Tip for parents: This zig-zag letter requires three lines, but is made with one continuous stroke. Explain to your child that the first and third lines are totally flat, and that the second line goes diagonally down the page.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends. See more at KiDoTi.com